Company Description

Legal Northwest (LNW) is exclusively devoted to the recruitment and placement of temporary and full-time legal staff and has served the legal community since 1985. Staff members have accomplished backgrounds in law office management and human resource recruitment and therefore understand legal practice and the demands of legal staffing.

Because of its expertise and devotion to quality and efficiency, Legal Northwest serves more than 300 law firms, corporate counsel, and governmental agencies. In turn, the company's work with these firms and businesses further enhances its knowledge of the legal profession and expands the ability to serve its clients.

Legal Northwest is also the Staffing Partner to the Multnomah Bar Association, providing bar members with support that is high quality, cost-effective and professional. Additionally, LNW donates three percent of all permanent placement fees to the Multnomah Bar Association for its pro bono legal programs.
